

POLICE HUNT CLUE IN FIRE RUINS WHERE 27 HORSES PERISH

Seek Cause of Flames That Destroy Hanover Street
Paper Factory.

NO YOUNG WOMAN
SEEN AT WINDOW

Overturning of Lamp Believed to Be Responsible for $50,000 Fire
of Tuesday Night.

Blackened timbers and ruins are to-day being overhauled by the Fire Marshal at the stables in Hanover street, near North Capitol, where twenty-seven horses and mules were burned to death last night and $50,000 damage done by flames.

Whether the fire was caused by the overturning of a lamp in the stables has not been determined. Marshal Nicholson, it is expected, will make his report later in the day.

No Young Woman Seen.

The fire authorities and the police take no stock in the story that a young woman was seen at one of the windows of the place shortly before the flames were discovered.

The building was a three-story brick. The second story was used by the Capital Paper Box Company, a branch of the J. E. Smith Company of Baltimore. The first floor was used for a stable by Bailey & Rusk, who have the contract for cleaning the streets of Washington.

Shortly after 8 o'clock Watchman J. W. Sherwood, the stable watchman, discovered the fire. He ran to Hanover street, gave the alarm, and, joined by a passer-by, returned to the stable and began cutting the halters of the 122 mules and horses stabled there.

Twenty-seven Horses Perish.

By the time that the flames enroached too far for safety, all but twenty-seven had been removed. The horses of No. 9 truck were slightly bruised in responding to the third alarm, when the truck brake refused to act, and the heavy apparatus skidded at the foot of Connecticut avenue hill at Bancroft place. There was no insurance on the burned horses. Each was valued at about $200. The paper manufactory carries $10,000 insurance in five companies. The entire building was gutted.

CONGREGATION PLANS FETE FOR RECTOR

A reception to the Rev. and Mrs. John Van Schalk, Jr., rector of the Church of Our Father, Thirteenth and K streets, is being planned for next Friday evening at the church by the members of the congregation.

The Rev. and Mrs. Van Schalk passed the summer in Europe and are to have a formal welcome home. A large representation from all of the societies of the church is expected to participate.

JOINS CARNEGIE INSTITUTION

It was announced today that Dr. Herman A. Spöhr, assistant in chemistry at the University of Chicago, has been appointed a member of the staff of the department of botanical research of the Carnegie Institution of Washington. Dr. Spöhr is conducting investigations of certain problems in plant physiology which lend themselves to the application of chemical methods.

Will Be Bride of Noted Aviator

MISS PAULINE CHASE,
Former Washington Girl, Who Is to Wed Claude Grahame-White, the English
Airman.

PINK PAJAMA GIRL WILL WED AVIATOR

Miss Pauline Chase Will Be Bride of Grahame-White
in Spring.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Claude Grahame-White, the English aviator, and Miss Pauline Chase, actress, known as the "Pink Pajama Girl," will wed in the spring. Miss Chase made the announcement last night through her manager, Charles Frohman.

The two met in London about nine years ago, when the actress visited that city as a member of Edna May's company. Recently, during one of his flights, Miss Chase accompanied the aviator aloft, but no significance was attached to the flight.

When Grahame-White was making flights in Washington last week it was known to his friends here that he sent telegram letters to Miss Chase nightly and was the recipient of a letter-telegram every morning. On the afternoon of his flight from Benning to the State, War, and Navy building, he received a long telegram of congratulation for his feat from Miss Chase.

ATTACKED BY DOGS BOY BADLY BITTEN

Twelve-year-old John Crow is this morning suffering from the effects of an attack made on him yesterday by a dog. The youngster was playing in an alley near the home of Mrs. Carrie M. Drake, 28 Tenth street northwest, when the dog, which the police say belonged to Mrs. Drake, bit him. The child was treated by Dr. Atkinson, of 1402 M street northwest.

UNION OF SOCIETIES SOUTHERNERS' PLAN

At a meeting to be held November 5 steps may be taken to organize a federation of Southern State societies in Washington. The plan, which is now being worked out by a committee, contemplates the obtaining of a suitable building for the federation. Laps D. McCord, James D. Richardson, and Charles A. Halley compose the committee. The meeting called for November 5 for the purpose of considering the plan probably will be held in Pythian Temple.

Three important points
to remember when buying Window
Shade Rollers:

First—Ask for and insist on having Hartshorn Shade Rollers.
TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE.

Second—Look on each Roller for the label with
the script signature,

Stewart Hartshorn

put there for your protection.

Third—Ask for "The Improved," as it requires no tacks.

Remember, "The Improved," Hartshorn Shade Roller requires no tacks, and the genuine has the script signature of Stewart Hartshorn on label.

TIN ROLLERS.

THINKING ABOUT A DENTIST

Be careful in making the selection. Thousands have selected me, probably because:

I guarantee everything I do.
I do all my work myself.
I do just as I advertise.
I am very successful.
I have had 12 years' experience
right here in Washington.
My prices are very reasonable.
They get the same high-class
work here they have been accustomed to pay 1-3 to 1-2 more for.

Quite a Saving.

Think it over.
